

Ethos Weekly Newsletter

May 14, 2026

Late April and early May have been very busy at Ethos, with our wonderful students performing at two Honors Recitals and at the final concert of the Ethos Chamber Players Spring 2026 concert series. As always, a heartfelt thank you to all performers and families who joined us for these events.

This weekend, we have one more exciting project taking place — the Ethos Dance and Music programs are joining forces for a special spring performance!

The Creation – A Special Ethos Music and Dance Program

Saturday, May 16 at 2:00 PM

Our outstanding Ethos dance and music students will present a unique program combining live music with dance.

Address:

Cypress Creek Christian Community Center
6823 Cypresswood Dr, Spring, TX 77379

Tickets:

4 complimentary tickets are available to each performer's family. Regular tickets are $10.

RSVP:

Please email admin@ethos.school to claim your tickets.

Summer 2026

Summer is right around the corner! Ethos will remain open during the summer months, and all operations will continue as normal.

Special Ethos Chamber Players & Texas Music Festival Joint Concert

Wednesday, June 17 at 7:30 PM

The Texas Music Festival, one of the top classical music festivals in the US, is coming to Ethos! The festival's top chamber groups, joined by Ethos School student chamber ensembles, will perform side-by-side in a special concert featuring some of the classics of chamber music literature.

We are thrilled about this collaboration and cannot wait for the performances — not to be missed!

As we partner with the Texas Music Festival, we are also happy to announce that all Ethos families receive a FREE PASS to all TMF events this summer. This includes a solo piano recital by Vadym Kholodenko, gold medal winner at the Fourteenth Van Cliburn International Piano Competition.

If you are interested in attending any of the festival's concerts, please reach out to us at admin@ethos.school.
